

Jewish Addiction

Addiction knows no boundaries—Jews are no exception.

Learn how addiction affects the Jewish community and how you can help make a difference.

WHEN: SUNDAY APRIL 18th 2010 at 1PM

WHERE: HOFSTRA UNIVERSITY STUDENT CENTER AT THE CULTURAL CENTER ROOM

This special program features a doctor, a Rabbi, and a recovering addict answering questions about addiction in the Jewish community. Jews face unique challenges when confronted with addiction. The program will explore these challenges both from a secular and traditional approach.

All persons are welcome regardless of religion or denomination. You don't need to be suffering from addiction to find great benefit from this event.

Moderated by JACS (Jewish Alcoholics, Chemically Dependent Persons, and Significant Others)

TOGETHER WE CAN FACE THIS PROGRAM HEAD ON

General directions:

Cultural Center room across from the Joan and Donald E. Axinn Library
123 Hofstra University; Hempstead, NY 11549-1230

Exit M4 off the Meadowbrook Parkway to Route 24W (Hempstead Tpke)...Stay on 24W for about one mile; Make the first right after the first pedestrian passway. Find Parking; enter Student Center Building (two story building). Follow signs to actual room!

MORE INFORMATION:

www.birthrightisrael.com/jewishaddiction

Jewishaddiction@gmail.com

