SONG OF THE FALAFEL

FALLAFEL

Every country here in the world has a national dish that's known to everyone,
and every children in kindergarden knows that the meal of macaroni is Italian.
The Austrians in Vienna have tasty schnitzel
and the French eat frogs the Chinese eat fine and delicate rice, and the canibals eat one another.

And we have falafel,
falafel, falafel,
a present for Dad
even Mom buys it here,
for old Grandma
we'll buy half a portion
And even the mother-in-law will get today
falafel, falafel
with lots and lots of peppers.

Once when a Jew came to Israel he kissed the ground and blessed the creator
Today, he just gets off the plane and already goes to buy falafel and drinks pop Around here we don't have a king, just a president
but we've already reached a peak in the kingdom
Around here each day a new king rises - a "happy" one, the second "desperate"

Because we have falafel,
falafel, falafel,
for here they sell to the majority,
the whole street smells (of it) frangrances of sesames and paraffin oil.

Falafel la'asot zeh lo pashut, falafel la'asot zot omanut, veyuchal lehav'chin kol ben teiman bein falafel shel chovev o shel aman.
Hamatz'chik beyoter hu, allah el azim falafel asui beyadei ashkenazim!
Bafalafel kazeh tamid tar'gish min ta'am muzar shel gefilte fish.

Rak lanu yesh falafel,
falafel, falafel,
le'aba matanah
gam ima kan konah, lesavta haz'kenah
nik'neh chatzi manah.
Ki zeh hama'achal hale'umi shel Yisrael -
falafel, falafel
im harbeh harbeh harbeh pilpel.

And one can even get heartburn from falafel, falafel
with lots and lots of peppers.

To make falafel is not easy, to make falafel is an art, and any Yemenite will be able to distinguish between falafel of an amateur or an artist
The funniest thing is, Almighty God, falafel made by ashkenazis!
In such a falafel you'll always taste a weird type of taste of gefilte fish.

Only we have falafel,
falafel, falafel,
a present for Dad
even Mom buys it here,
for old Grandma
For this is the national meal of Israel -
falafel, falafel
with lots and lots of peppers.
